USPA NEWS - Sneakz Organic LLC, Makers of the Award-Winning Line of Vegetable-Infused Milkshakes, announced that is has achieved what many thought was impossible : Obtaining the Prized China Organic Certification. Different from the U.S. Classification of what makes a Product Organic, the PRC (People's Republic of China) lists the Ingredients that you can use, as opposed to what you cannot use ; so if an Ingredient is not included on the List Prior, the Company must work to adjust its Formula or work to get the Ingredient approved before they can receive the Certification. As such and in just 22 Months, Sneakz Organic was able to create a Brand New Category of Product and add two of its Ingredients to the Approved List in order to receive this Esteemed Certification.
